Called by Name Celebrating the Call to the Priesthood

THE DIOCESE OF HARRISBURG
VOCATIONS

This weekend kicks off the diocesan-wide Called by Name Campaign: an initiative of the Diocese of Harrisburg Vocations Office that celebrates God’s call to each of us to follow Him in a particular way. At every parish in the diocese, our priests will share their own story of their vocation to the priesthood - how he listened and responded to God’s call in his life. As part of this special weekend, we are asking you to participate by spending time this week thinking and praying about someone in our parish who God may be calling to the priesthood or religious life - someone with qualities that you would want in your priest.

Using the candidate cards in the Narthex, simply write down the name and contact information of the young man or men (ages 15 to 40 years old and single) who you have in mind and drop it in the box provided, or bring it the following weekend and put it in the collection basket. Bishop Senior and our Vocation Director, Fr. Joshua Weaver, will then send these candidates a letter of encouragement along with Fr. Weaver’s contact information should they wish to follow up. Thank you for your openness and generous participation.

Called By Name

The Called by Name program encourages the faithful to propose names of boys and men in our community who would be good candidates for the priesthood. Please write the name and contact info of someone who would make a good priest (unmarried, 15-40 years old).

Single Men: If you have personally considered the priesthood, or if you would like to learn more, please provide your name and contact info.

Loving and generous Father, it is You who call us by name and ask us to follow You.

Help us to grow in the love and service of our Church and give us the grace and courage of Your Holy Spirit to shape its future.

Grant us faith-filled leaders who will embrace Christ’s Mission of love and justice.

Bless the Church of Harrisburg by raising up dedicated and generous servants from our parishes, schools, families, and friends who will serve Your people as priests, deacons, and consecrated women and men.

Inspire us to know You better and open our hearts to hear Your call.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

O Mary, Queen of the Clergy. Pray for us. Pray for our priests and religious. Obtain for us many more. Amen!

January 17, 2025

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

On Monday, January 20, 2025, we honor the legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and recall his profound commitment to justice, equality, non-violence and the unyielding pursuit of peace. That same day, President Donald J. Trump will be inaugurated as the 47th President of the United States.

In this moment of leadership transition, our communities face challenges and opportunities. Division and dissent often overshadow the respectful dialogue we so desperately need. Yet, unity is not merely an ideal; it is a necessity for the common good of our society. Dr. King once said, “We must learn to live together as brothers or we will all perish together as fools.” He envisioned that it is indeed possible for all people to live and prosper together as a community of love and peace.

Admittedly, the challenges we face today are, at times, very discouraging. We are witnessing polarization that often leads to conflict instead of conversation. Many feel unheard, marginalized, and filled with uncertainty about the future. Even so, it is in these moments of adversity that we have the greatest opportunity to embody the spirit of love and understanding that Dr. King championed.

Our Holy Father, Pope Francis, also said, “In today’s world, which increasingly faces the challenges of social injustice, division and conflict that hinder the realization of the common good, Dr. King’s dream of harmony and equality for all people, attained through nonviolent and peaceful means, remains ever timely.”<sup>1</sup>

As Catholics, we have an even greater commandment from Christ, who said “This is my commandment: love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one’s life for one’s friends.” (John 15: 12-13)

Reflecting on Dr. King’s words and historic witness, and the transition in leadership in Washington D.C., I invite all the people of our Diocese to recommit to being agents of peace and unity. Please join me in praying for President Trump and his administration, and pray also that God will bless us as we strive to embody the love, peace, hope, and unity for which Dr. King so passionately advocated.

Sincerely in Christ,

Most Reverend Timothy C. Senior
Bishop of Harrisburg
