All Good Works together are not of equal value with the sacrifice of the Mass, because they are the works of men, and the holy Mass is the work of God. Martyrdom is nothing in comparison; it is the sacrifice that man makes of his life to God; the Mass is the sacrifice that God makes to man of His Body and of His Blood. Oh, how great is a priest! If he understood himself he would die. . . . God obeys him; he speaks two words, and Our Lord comes down from Heaven at his voice, and shuts Himself up in a little Host. God looks upon the altar. "That is My well-beloved Son," He says, "in whom I am well-pleased." He can refuse nothing to the merits of the offering of this Victim. If we had faith, we should see God hidden in the priest like a light behind a glass, like wine mingled with water.

July 22, 2026

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

On July 26, the Church celebrates the Feast of Saints Joachim and Anne, the parents of the Blessed Mother and grandparents of Jesus. This year, that feast coincides with the sixth World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly. Instituted by Pope Francis in 2021, this annual observance invites us to honor the irreplaceable contributions of our grandparents and older adults within our families, parishes, communities, and the whole Church.

The theme chosen by Pope Leo XIV for this year's observance is drawn from the prophet Isaiah: "I will never forget you." (Is 49:15) Pope Leo XIV observes, "The Church understands the suffering of her elderly members; she knows full well that they are all too often viewed through the lens of stereotypes and considered a burden; she is aware that a profit-driven economy weakens family ties; she knows that many elderly people are left behind by children who are forced to migrate or, in some cases, to fight in wars. For each of these reasons, she joyfully proclaims the Lord's promise: 'But I will never forget you!'" (Message of the Holy Father for the Sixth World Day of Grandparents and the Elderly, Feast of St Joachim and Anne, 26 July 2026)

These words offer consolation and hope to all grandparents and elderly persons, especially those who live alone, carry burdens quietly, or may feel unseen. For many older adults, these years can bring unexpected challenges. Some live far from family and friends. Others grieve the loss of loved ones, face illness or physical limitations, or experience the ache of loneliness. Yet even in those difficult moments, we are never truly alone; the Lord remains close. He walks with us each day, reminds us of our immeasurable dignity and worth, and renews our hope in these golden years. As a Church, we want every older person to know that you are seen, you are loved, and you are not forgotten.

To our grandparents and elderly brothers and sisters: your witness continues to strengthen the life of our Diocesan family in ways both seen and unseen. On this World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly, I want to offer a message of hope to those who may feel forgotten or isolated. The Church has not forgotten you. Please know that you remain an essential part of the Body of Christ and of our Diocesan family. You continue to share many gifts that our world desperately needs. May you find comfort in knowing that Christ is near, that your parish community cares for you, and that there is always a place for you in the heart of the Church.

I also encourage everyone in our Diocese to mark this day with gratitude and practical care. Visit an elderly relative or neighbor. Call someone who may be alone. Bring the comfort of your presence, your prayers, and your love. In doing so, we become living signs of God's promise: "I will never forget you."

May Saints Joachim and Anne, the grandparents of Jesus, intercede for all grandparents and elderly persons, and may the Lord bless them with the peace of His unfailing love.

Sincerely in Christ,

Most Reverend Timothy C. Senior
Bishop of Harrisburg

Arise: Healing the Feminine Heart!

A retreat for women searching for healing and wholeness in their feminine identity.
October 23-25, 2026 - Malvern Retreat Center

This retreat, designed and offered for women of every state in life, explores a woman's identity before God, as daughter, life in communion, as sister, self-gift, as bride, and fruitfulness, as mother. These identities are not stages of a woman's life, but dimensions present in every woman, regardless of vocation.

Included are opportunities for small groups for married, single/divorced, or religious women. Our journey into the feminine heart will have the example of Our Lady, the writings of Pope Saint John Paul II, and the saints as our guides. We will prayerfully explore God's beautiful design for femininity, how we can encounter healing in our fallen femininity, so we can answer our call to "Arise, shine, for your light has come" (Isaiah 60:1). Presenters are Jen Settle, Jeanette Clark, Carrie Archual, and Vanessa Carrillo.

Inspiring Quotes from Saint Dominic Feast Day August 8th

"A man who governs his passions is master of the world. We must either rule them or be ruled by them. It is better to be the hammer than the anvil."

"You see the wonderful results I have had in preaching the Holy Rosary. You and those who love Our Lady must do the same; through the holy devotion of the Rosary, you will attract all to the true science of the virtues."
