Arise: Healing the Feminine Heart!

A retreat for women searching for healing and wholeness in their feminine identity.
October 23-25, 2026 - Malvern Retreat Center

This retreat, designed and offered for women of every state in life, explores a woman's identity before God, as daughter, life in communion, as sister, self-gift, as bride, and fruitfulness, as mother. These identities are not stages of a woman's life, but dimensions present in every woman, regardless of vocation.

Included are opportunities for small groups for married, single/divorced, or religious women. Our journey into the feminine heart will have the example of Our Lady, the writings of Pope Saint John Paul II, and the saints as our guides. We will prayerfully explore God's beautiful design for femininity, how we can encounter healing in our fallen femininity, so we can answer our call to "Arise, shine, for your light has come" (Isaiah 60:1). Presenters are Jen Settle, Jeanette Clark, Carrie Archual, and Vanessa Carrillo.

Mary by Candlelight

In every age, the Blessed Virgin Mary gently points us toward her Son with a mother's love. Come experience that invitation during Mary by Candlelight, a special evening presented by Women at the Well. On Wed., Sept. 9, from 6:30–8:30 p.m., women of every parish are invited to gather at St. John Neumann for a candlelit evening of music and prayerful reflection on the life of the Mother of God. Together we will contemplate Mary's faith, humility, and unwavering trust in God, allowing her witness to deepen our own relationship with Jesus Christ. Refreshments will be served. A $10 donation (payable at the door) is appreciated. Advance registration is requested because seating is limited. The social hall is handicap accessible. To register, email MaryEllen at genoese609@comcast.net or text 717-808-7393 by 9/6.
