The rosary is pleasing to the Blessed Virgin because of its origin and its excellence. In fact, the rosary is not the product of human fancy; it was suggested to men by the Blessed Virgin herself, and she had the most sublime purpose for doing so. Mary personally gave us this precious token of salvation, and she also taught us the manner of using it. Is there any devotion [to Mary] more excellent than this?

Marriage Annulments

Did you know the Tribunal has a video presentation (in English and Spanish) concerning divorce and annulment available on the Diocesan website and on YouTube? The presentation is helpful for divorced Catholics, non-Catholics who are divorced and wish to marry a Catholic, parish leaders involved in OCIA, and anyone else who may have an interest because of family or friends.

To view these videos, visit www.hbgdiocese.org/tribunal/divorce-and-remarriage/#tribunal-information-session.

‘“Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.” (Matthew 5:12)

Today, we celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints. We are called to especially focus on the glory of heaven, where all the faithful enjoy eternal happiness and peace in the presence of God. And it is in that hope that we hear these words, which conclude one of the most famous passages in all of Scripture, “The Beatitudes”. This passage begins the Sermon on the Mount, found in Chapters 5, 6 and 7 of the Gospel of Saint Matthew, which teach us how we are to live, not in the ways of the world but in the ways of God.

Indeed, in living out these Beatitudes, we achieve our true identity, as Saint John tells us in our Second Reading; that we are children of God. And today’s Feast shows us our eternal destiny of heaven, as tomorrow’s Feast shows us how we pray for those awaiting that fulfillment, who still suffer in Purgatory.

These feasts of All Saints and All Souls remind us of the end of life that awaits all of us, but how all of us are joined in faith with those who have gone before us which comprise the totality of the Church, that traditional description of “The Church Militant”, you and I still engaged in the battles of this world, united to “The Church Suffering”, those souls in Purgatory that endure a time of trial and waiting, and also with “The Church Triumphant”, all the Saints.

As we do each year, we will offer 14 Masses throughout the month of November for all those whose names are inscribed on our All Souls Envelopes. As we also note each year, there is no need to include any money with those envelopes as those amounts are voluntary gifts that will be shared between Father Meinert and me. Also, please note our All Souls evening Mass this Monday at 7:00 p.m. when we will pray for all those of our Parish who have died this year.

We also have special opportunities for the next two weeks, to obtain a Plenary Indulgence that effects the remission of all temporal punishment due to sin that we can either receive for ourselves or offer for a soul in purgatory so that he or she would immediately be brought into the glory of heaven. These special acts include: (1) visiting a cemetery and praying for the souls of the dead on any day from November 1-8; (2) visiting a Church on All Souls Day; (3) visiting a Church on the day of its Dedication, for us, on November 3rd; and (4) visiting a Church on the Feast Day of its Patron, for us, the Feast of Saint Leo the Great on November 10th. For one to receive this extraordinary gift, one must not have any undue attachment to sin, receive Sacramental Confession and Holy Communion within a reasonable time of the prescribed devotion, and recite the Lord’s Prayer and the Creed and pray for the Intentions of Pope Leo.

So, as we gather on this special Feast Day of All the Saints, let us be filled with fervor and faith, as each of us, by the grace of God in Baptism, has become His child. May we live out that identity each day in our living the Beatitudes, sustained by His grace and mercy, in that hope and joy, that, by the power of the mercy of God, we will one day join the great multitude of the saints and angels in that reward, meant for us, which will be great in heaven. God bless you.

Monsignor Hahn
